

DRESS CODE AND CODE OF CONDUCT FOR WELLSPRING HOMESCHOOL, INC.

Instructors, leaders, or chaperones who believe any dress or personal appearance to be distracting, unsafe, or unsuitable for any Wellspring event may request students to abnegate them. This can include covering them with other apparel, removing an item, or being asked to leave the premises.

- All clothing must be modest and unrevealing in cut, fit, and texture.
- All clothing should be neat and clean and contain no inappropriate messages or pictures.
- Clothing may not be see-through; clothing considered as underclothing may not be worn as an outside garment.
- All pants, skirts, shorts, and dresses must be no shorter than the tips of the fingers when standing.
- Slits in skirts or dresses must not extend higher than the tips of the fingers when standing.
- Girls' necklines must be modest in cut and fit. No cleavage may show, even when bending over.
- All shirts must be long enough to reach to the top of pants/shorts/skirts and should not allow the exposure of midriffs or backs. Dresses may not have cut-outs in the midriff.
- Swimsuits worn at Wellspring functions must cover midriff and be conservatively cut. Boys must wear boxer-style suits.
- If there is any question about attire meeting dress code requirements, the parent/guardian of the attendee should message the event organizer before the day of the event with their concern and, if possible, submit a picture of the attendee in the outfit for review.

The following rules of conduct apply to all Wellspring functions and sponsored events. Anyone failing to follow these rules can be asked to leave Wellspring and/or the event.

- No fighting
- No alcohol, tobacco, e-cigarettes, controlled substances, firearms, or fireworks
- No inappropriate or suggestive dancing; there must not be any full frontal contact
- No inappropriate public displays of affection (quick hugs and hand-holding is acceptable)
- No bullying; this includes face-to-face and through social media
- If at any time an attendee sees a safety issue, feels personally unsafe, or has any concern, they should bring attention to their concerns to an event chaperone.
- Re-admittance to the event will not be permitted if the attendee decides to leave and then come back again.
