

DRESS CODE AND CODE OF CONDUCT FOR WELLSPRING HOMESCHOOL, INC.

- All clothing must be modest and unrevealing in cut, fit, and texture.
- All clothing should be neat and clean and contain no inappropriate messages or pictures.
- Clothing may not be see through; clothing considered as underclothing may not be worn as an outside garment.
- All pants, skirts, shorts, and dresses must be no shorter than midthigh. Slits in skirts or dresses must not extend higher than midthigh. Your undergarments should not show when bending over. Boys' pants must be modestly cut and not tight-fitting.
- Girls' necklines must be modest in cut and fit. No cleavage or breast may show, even when bending over.
- All shirts must be long enough to reach to the top of pants/shorts/skirts and should not allow the exposure of midriffs. Dresses may not have cutouts in the midriff, but may have scooped backs or cutouts in the back as long as they go no lower than the waist.
- Leaders or chaperones who believe any dress or personal appearance to be distracting, unsafe, or unsuitable for a Wellspring event may request students to abnegate them. This can include covering them with other apparel, removing an item, or being asked to leave the premises.

The following rules of conduct apply to all Wellspring functions and sponsored events. Anyone failing to follow these rules can be asked to leave Wellspring and/or the event.

- No fighting
- No alcohol, tobacco, controlled substances, or firearms
- No inappropriate dancing (left up to the discretion of the onsite parents)
- No inappropriate public displays of affection (left up to the discretion of onsite parents)
- No bullying; this includes face-to-face and through social media
- There is a no return policy for participants at all dances. Once you leave the premises, you may not return.
